

It's an atrocity that this level of discrimination exists in our legislation in the 21st century ! Laws that govern a multicultural society from all sorts of beliefs and denominations, should not then exclusively represent a Christian faction ! The civil union of two people should not be bound by religious belief; rather the belief of the majority of society. Marriage laws should be consistent with other civil laws and remove all forms of discrimination.