

Dear Parliamentary Inquiry

I am an Australian who has been travelling around the world for work visiting such locations as Germany, Sweden, England and Canada. The social acceptance of gay marriage has really surprised and changed my view considerable.

I urge the Australian government to provide for equal marriage rights to all and enjoy the social and cultural benefits that will flow.

Regards

Matt Harris