

Dear Senate Representatives

I wish to express my opposition regarding the passing of the Greens Marriage Equality Bill 2009.

I do not agree with the deletion of the words "a man and a woman" from the definition of marriage in the general Marriage Act, replacing them with "two persons".

This bill, when passed, would radically change what marriage means in Australia.

I refer to FamilyVoice Australia's comprehensive submission opposing this bill for consideration.

Kind regards,