

To the Senate Legal and Constitutional Affairs Committee,

I wish to lodge my objection to the Marriage Equality Bill 2009 because the institution of marriage is a gift from God between a man and a woman. From this institution stems the family which is the fabric of society. This institution needs to be preserved and supported by our democratically elected leaders.

God Bless,

Fr Andrew Grace