

To the Senate Legal and Constitutional Affairs Committee

I strongly oppose the Marriage Equality Bill 2009.

A marriage should remain between a man and a woman.

I respect those people who are in homosexual relationships, but I believe Marriage is an institution between a man and a woman for the benefit of their children and for the benefit of wider society.

Therefore I cannot support this bill.

Regards

Catherine Madsen