

just briefly in response to the Animal Welfare Bill, Apart from the further absurd increase in the paper shuffling that is herein proposed, this appears at first glance to be a dangerous invasion of privacy. In view of past events involving attacks by animal rightists against scientists I believe that the publication of details of researchers is just plain stupid. Not much else needs to be said on this subject. I would hope that common sense prevails and this is not pursued. Yours , Michael

Michael Archer
ph 64882550
fax 64881029
School of Animal Biology
University of Western Australia
6009