

To Whom it may concern,

We as horse owners don't create an exotic disease potential as part of owning a horse. As our hobby as horse owners already costs, which is not tax deductible, why should we pay for something the government has made a mistake with in allowing these diseases to enter our country. Your mistake not ours.

N.Scott