

No portion of any State or City, Public transport system should at any time be Privatized, Bringing the need to provide shareholders with profit should not be part of the system. By now all State capital airports should have fast direct rail services serving them, and the airports themselves should never have been sold off, Where there is a need there is no room for Greed. And there is a need for cheap reliable public transport all over Australia.

Anthony Rowley.