

As a long-time responsible owner of well behaved dogs I want to be able to use public transport with my pets when necessary. Throughout the world this is widely accepted and the barriers created in Australia are both unreasonable and unjustifiable. Please correct this injustice.

Yours faithfully

Christopher Dean