

I have a small pet a bicchoodle and she is toilet and house trained and would be absolutely no nuisance on public transport. I would catch public transport more often if my dog could travel with me.. I am a responsible dog owner and she is well trained and there would be no concern for other commuters. She is often used by the local hospital and childrens institutions as therapy for the patients and the children.

I also a pet friendly policy at work.

Regards

Nazha Saad