

Personally do not support the new legislation in changing the way that youth allowance to be made available to Rural students.

As a Professional in Rural Area (originally from Metro) for over 20 years my family and I are seriously considering now moving back to Metropolitan area due to additional costs in providing appropriate education for our Children